

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FONDUE AESTHETICS

organized by kate hers

Sunday, July 12, 4-7 pm

Sea and Space Explorations
4755 York Boulevard
Los Angeles, CA 90042

Experience relational aesthetics and the aesthetics of Swiss culinary arts. Learn how to make traditional fondue and how to eat it with authentic Swiss chefs, the Hess Brothers from Zürich.

Followed by discussion, lead by Robert Summers.

kate hers is not a chinese artist.
www.katehers.com

The Hess Brothers

nic hess is a swiss born artist based in los angeles and zürich. He was educated in Architecture and studied fine arts at the Rietveld Academy in the Netherlands and HDK in Berlin.
www.nichess.ch

swiss born joshua hess is a director of photography based in los angeles.
www.joshuahessdp.com

Robert Summers is a lecturer in art history and visual culture at Otis College of Art. He is a board member of Telic Arts Exchange and The Public School. He has published papers in art and academic magazines and journals, and has published essays in anthologies, such as “Vaginal Davis _Does_ Art History” in _Jonathan Harris’s Dead History, Live Art_ (University of Chicago Press). He has also presented papers and has chaired panels both nationally and internationally -- the latest panel being “Intersectional Queer Visualities” at the annual Association of Art Historians (AAH) conference in the UK.